

Mercedes-Benz 600 (W 100)

The presentation of the type 600 – the Großer Mercedes – in 1963 restored the tradition of sumptuous luxury and ultimate prestige of Mercedes-Benz vehicles. Exclusively designed as a representative car, it fulfilled the highest demands and was equipped with many technical details, which stood for the highest standard that could be achieved at the time.

Delivered to a customer in the United States in July of 1967, this 600 Limousine presents in largely original and overall excellent condition. This stunning example of a Mercedes-Benz 600 with short wheelbase was selectively restored by renowned 600 specialist Karl Middelhauve in the early 2000s and received functional upgrades such as an electronic ignition system.

The car features the original beige leather interior (232) and restored Havana Brown (DB 408) exterior finish. This 600 has no mechanical needs and is ready to be enjoyed by its next owner.
